● Thomas G. Labrecque Society Members

Thomas Labrecque, an esteemed businessman and philanthropist, provided outstanding leadership to United Way of New York City for many years. As the Chairman of the Board of Directors, he was a driving force in the merger of United Way of New York City and The Greater New York Fund in the late 1980s, which set the course that we follow today as the largest private supporter and funder of human services in New York City.

The following individuals have named United Way of New York City in a will or bequest, or have made a planned gift to United Way. We gratefully acknowledge their gift and extend our deepest appreciation to these individuals as well as their family and loved ones for their visionary generosity.

Joseph A. Adlington
